Michael is a toddler who has curly black hair and big brown eyes. He is very curious and loves to learn. Of course, he also loves to play. He is the youngest of five children in his family so his mother is very busy. One day when his mother was cooking, Michael ran into the kitchen and knocked over a fan. It made a loud noise and fell onto the microwave! The microwave broke. Fortunately, no one got hurt. His mum was afraid and upset, but she hugged Michael and told him to be more careful. Michael cried and said, "I'm sorry."

When his father came home, he was angry at first to see that the microwave was broken. He asked his wife, "What happened?"

She told him, "Michael knocked over a fan and it hit the appliance. I told him to be more careful and he said that he is sorry. I did not punish him because he is very young and did not mean to break anything."

Michael's father smiled and said, "I agree. We don't need to punish him. I'm glad he's not hurt and I think he will be more careful in the future. I'm happy he learned not to run in the kitchen."

Michael's parents are very patient with him and they are helping him learn. Michael loves asking them questions and learning new things. His mum reads books to him to help him learn about animals, plants, and God's love for him. Even though Michael is still very young, he is growing and learning new things every day.
