Peter Preaches to Cornelius

Acts 10:1-48

There was a man named Cornelius.

He was not a Jew. He was a good man and worshiped the true God. He prayed to God and did good things for other people.

One day, Cornelius had a vision.
An angel from God came to him.

The angel said, "God has heard your prayers. God knows about your faith and the good things you do. Now send some men to Joppa to find Peter and bring him to you."

Cornelius obeyed the angel.

The next day at noon, Peter was praying. He had a vision, too. It was a strange vision. He did not know what it meant.

Peter saw a big cloth sheet coming down from the sky.

The sheet had all kinds of animals, snakes, and birds on it.

A voice said, "Get up, Peter. Kill them and eat them."

But Peter said, "No. I do not eat things which are unclean."

The voice said, "It is all right. God has made all these things clean."

This happened three times. Then Peter could not see the sheet any more.

Peter was thinking about the vision. Then the men from Cornelius came to his house.

The Holy Spirit said to Peter, "Go with them. Do not ask any questions because I have sent them to you."

It was against Jewish law to visit non-Jewish people. The Jews thought those people were unclean. But God showed Peter that he should not call anyone unclean.

The next day, Peter went with the men to Cornelius' house. Peter said, "I had a strange vision. Now I know what the vision means.

All people are the same in God's eyes. It is not important what country they are from. It is not important what tribe they are from. Jesus came to earth and died for all people. Every person who believes in Jesus will be saved. God will forgive their sins."

The Holy Spirit came upon the people as Peter was preaching. Peter saw this. He said, "These foreign people received the Holy Spirit just as we Jews did." So Peter told them to be baptised in the name of Jesus.

This is an important story. God wants us to know that Jesus did not die just for the Jews. Jesus died for every person. This is good news for all people in the whole world.

Answer the questions.

1. Who was Cornelius?
2. What did Peter learn from the vision of the animals?
3. Why does God want all people to hear about Jesus?
4. How does God want us to treat people who are different from us?

Song: I Would Like to Read – Part 1

Come on brother and help me read.
I'd like to read the sweet story of love.
How the father created the heavens and earth,
And sent us his son from above.

Come on sister and help me read.
I'd like to read the sweet story of light.
How Jesus came to set the captives free,
And to give the blind people sight.

Song: I Would Like to Read – Part 2

Come on brother and help me read.
I'd like to read the sweet story of truth.
How Jesus was killed and rose again,
to save sinners like me and you.

Come on sister and help me read.
I'd like to read the sweet story of old.
How we can live forever in heaven with God,
singing his praises on the streets of gold.

Subject Cricket practice on Thursday?

Dear Prentice,

Would you like to go to the field on Thursday with me? I like to play cricket, but I need to practise bowling and catching the ball. I wouldn't like to play badly during the big game in the stadium. I would like it if you could practise with me!

Thanks, Stanley
